As COVID-19 continues to spread globally, Cascade wants to reassure you that we're taking this situation very seriously. The health of our employees, our customers, and their families is, and continues to be, our highest priority.

At the moment, Cascade remains operational around the world. Our global facilities are taking all precautions and implementing strict procedures - such as social distancing, restricted travel and more - to ensure the safety of our employees. We are closely monitoring the situation and will continue to follow direction given from the World Health Organization and local public health agencies.

We know that this is a difficult situation for everyone. Cascade remains committed to maintaining customer satisfaction while keeping our employees safe and healthy. We are paying close attention to our supply chain and plan to minimize any impact by leveraging our global capabilities.

While we may not be able to meet face-to-face, our sales and customer service teams are ready to assist you with any questions or concerns you may have. If you have a specific requirement or need, please don't hesitate to reach out to us. We are here to help you.

Thank you for your loyalty. We will keep you updated as this situation develops, and we have more information to share.
